Media meets Industry Dinner presented by AERO

AERO will host an exclusive Networking Dinner featuring a buffet. The event is designed to bring together key representatives from the aviation industry and members of the media in an informal and engaging atmosphere.

This evening offers a unique opportunity to strengthen relationships, exchange ideas, and foster collaboration between industry leaders and journalists. Please note that the event is intended solely for editorial representatives and industry professionals – advertising sales personnel will not be present.

We expect between 80 and 100 participants, ensuring an intimate yet diverse gathering that encourages meaningful conversation.
