

Web Manuals strengthens Southern Europe presence with Barcelona expansion

Friedrichshafen, Germany, 21 April, 2026: World leader in digital aviation documentation, Web Manuals, is opening its sixth global office, this time in Barcelona, Spain.

Complementing the company's existing global footprint, with bases already in New York, San Diego, Sydney, Singapore, and headquarters in Malmö, Sweden, the new location reflects continued growth in Southern Europe, where Web Manuals now supports more than 50 customers, including 15 in Spain.

As part of the expansion, Web Manuals Group CEO Martin Lidgard has relocated to Spain. He says: *"Southern Europe has become a strategic growth region for Web Manuals. The new office is located in the heart of Barcelona's 'innovation district', where Web Manuals will be neighbors with innovation hubs, research centers, startups, large corporations, and universities across the technology and creative sectors.
